The ded to bring necessary papers. The ded ed to bring necessary papers. The defendants through counsel, Judge Thomas Moore, entered a plea of not guilty, and, as was expected, a motion was made that the indictment be quashed because it was not returned in open court. Several cases were cited. Court adjourned after half an hour, till certain papers can be produced.

YOU'RE LOCATED BY YOUR BAGGAGE

Experienced travelers all know the advantages of nice-looking baggage, especially such as they carry in their hands when they go to a hotel, for 'tis here that the baggage or luggage, to use the European expression, counts.

When you approach the desk and register the clerk, if he has not done so as you approach, will look over the counter and size up your luggage. If your grips and dress-suit cases are made of good material, you get a good counter and size up your luggage. If your grips and dress-sult cases are made of good material, you get a good room and polite attention, because the clerks and bellhops all know you know what good things are. On the other hand, if your grips, dress-sult cases and trunks look cheap, shoddy and tawdry, you get a small, dark room on an alley near the roof and no attention from the bellboys. Clerks and bellboys have learned from your luggage that you travel on a chean and beliboys have learned from your luggage that you travel on a cheap plan, and are, therefore, unused to the best, and they will see that you do not get it from them.

Patrons of O. H. Berry & Company, Eleventh and Main Streets, say that while traveling in this country and Europe the luggage as well as the baggage which came from the trunk department of this big store was often a big help in getting the owners good quarters and polite service. This, they say, was because Berry's trunks, satchels, grips, bags and dress-suit cases invariably have a refined and prosperous air, because they are well made and of the best material. The prices, when wear and comfort is considered, are much lower in Berry's than elsewhere.
